Article 10. Other Provisions and Purpose Statement:

(a) The period of existence of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

(b) The purposes for which this Corporation is organized are in general to provide for maintenance, preservation and architectural control of the lots and Common Area of property in Dane County, Wisconsin described in the Declaration of Covenants and Restrictions, hereinafter called the "Declaration," and any additions thereto as may hereafter be brought within the jurisdiction of this Corporation (all hereinafter called the "Properties") and to promote the health, safety and welfare of the residents within the Properties, including, but not thereby limiting by such enumeration, the following purposes:

(i) Exercise all of the powers and privileges and to perform all of the duties and obligations of the Association (being the same entity as this Corporation and this Corporation may hereinafter alternatively be referred to by such designation) as set forth in the Declaration and all Supplementary Declarations applicable to the Properties and recorded in the Office of Register of Deeds of Dane County, Wisconsin and as the same may be amended from time to time as therein provided, said Declaration being incorporated herein as if set forth at length;

(ii) Fix, levy, collect and enforce payment by any lawful means, all charges or assessments pursuant to the terms of the Declaration; to pay all expenses in connection therewith and all office and other expenses incident to the conduct of the business of the Association, including all licenses, taxes or governmental charges levied or imposed against the Properties of the Association;

(iii) Acquire (by gift, purchase or otherwise), own, hold, improve, build upon, operate, maintain, convey, sell, lease, transfer, dedicate for public use or otherwise dispose of real or personal property in connection with the affairs of the Association;

(iv) Borrow money, and as provided in the Declaration, mortgage, pledge, deed in trust, or hypothecate any or all of its real or personal property as security for money borrowed or debts incurred;

(v) Dedicate, sell or transfer all or any part of the Common Area to any public agency, authority, or utility for such purposes and subject to such conditions as may be agreed to by the members are set forth in the Declaration;

(vi) Participate in mergers and consolidations with other nonprofit corporations organized for the same purposes or annex additional residential property and Common Area, as provided in the Declaration;

(vii) Have and to exercise any and all powers, rights and privileges which a corporation organized under the Wisconsin Nonstock Corporation Law by law may now or hereafter have or exercise.

(c) No substantial part of the activities of the Association shall be devoted to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise within the meaning of the proscriptive provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Association shall not directly or indirectly participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

(d) Every person or entity who is a record owner of a fee or undivided fee interest in any lot which is subject by covenants of record to assessment by the Association, shall be a member of the Association except that as to any lot which is the subject of a land contract wherein the purchaser is in possession, the term "Owner" shall refer to such person instead of the vendor. Every lessee of a living unit on any lot who holds a written lease having an initial term of at least 12 months shall be a member of the Association. The classes of membership and the respective rights of members are set forth in the By-Laws.

(e) The Corporation does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to its members, directors or officers. No dividends or pecuniary profits or liquidating dividends or distributions shall be declared or paid by or from the Corporation to its members, directors or officers. However, the Corporation may pay compensation in reasonable amounts to employees, members, directors or officers for services rendered and may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with its purposes and to the extent not prohibited in these Articles, the Declaration and its By-Laws.

(f) This Corporation may be dissolved with the assent given in writing and signed by not less than 75% of each class of members. Upon dissolution, other than incident to a merger or consolidation, the assets of the Corporation shall be dedicated to an appropriate nonprofit public agency to be used for purposes similar to those for which the Corporation was created. In the event that such dedication is refused acceptance, such assets shall be granted, conveyed and assigned to any nonprofit corporation, association, trust or other organization to be devoted to such similar purposes.

(g) Amendment of these articles shall require the consent of 75% of each class of members.

(h) Invalidation of any of these Articles or sections of Articles by judgment, court order or change of law shall in no way affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.
